

Participation in School Boards' Association

As required by law, the board members are members of the Washington State School Directors Association (WSSDA). Board members are encouraged to participate in the association, which establishes the rate of membership dues at its annual meeting, provides services in response to members' needs, and develops and implements a legislative program at the direction of its members.

Legal Reference: RCW 28A.345.020

Washington state school directors'
association – Membership

Adoption Date: 07.08.02

Former Policy Number: 1500

Clover Park School District

Revised: 06.11.12

Discretionary